EDITORIALS.

The Sun last week was the recipient of the 1920 Year Book of Swift & Co., a picturesque booklet of 64 pages. Of its interesting topics not the least was the address of President Louis F. Swift to the stockholders.

Only four corporations outnumber this in stockholders to-wit: U. S. Steel Corporation, American Telephone & Telegraph Co., Pennsylvania Railroad, Santa Fe Railroad. Of the 35,000 share holders of Swift & Co., over 10,000 are employees and under the 1919 Employees Stock Savings Plan more than 13,000 other employees have subscribed for shares. Total sales were over $1,200,000,000 and net earnings for the year $13,870,813.34.

President Swift is hopeful of the decline of H. C. L. and gives his opinion as to H. C. L. as the public's extravagance: "When the public economizes in purchasing then prices will decline and not before." During the fiscal year Swift & Co. handled nearly 16,000,000 animals. He discusses the rise and fall of prices carefully for five years and shows an average in beef prices in New York, Philadelphia, Washington and Chicago for 1915 at 11.42 to 1919 at 18.97.

The segregation of Tanneries and side lines is announced and the hope is expressed that the agreement with Attorney General Palmer will stem adverse legislation 68 per cent of the $500 employees that were called to arms returned to find their positions awaiting them. For one year after the declaration of peace the arrangement made with the President's peace commission, whereby matters of wages and differences, which cannot be mutually adjusted are referred to Judge Alschuler will continue. Such a corporation is a benefit to mankind. It supplies the most sanitary and toothsome food at only a quarter of a cent profit per pound.

"EVERYWOMAN"

By Prof. W. H. Harrison of Attucks School.

"Everywoman" presented by the Dubois Dramatic Club was well worthy of the effort. It was clean, inspiring and elevating. While the performers might be classed as amateurs in this line of work, yet the earnestness and the brilliancy with which each played his part would be a credit to the most seasoned actor or actress. It simply proves the fact that our race can and will ultimately become important factors in all lines of activity. I believe that after our girls and our boys have seen this play rendered by our own artists and if the forces in the community that stand for good will emphasize the great lesson drawn from "Everywoman" the community is far better by having seen it. We feel indebted to all of the participants. They were all good. Let's have it again.

HIGHLAND AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The services were attended by appreciative and responsive audiences last Sunday. There were three additions to the church....At 11:30 the pastor delivered a wonderful sermon, choosing for a text, "Be Strong and of a Good Courage"....At 1:30 Sunday school was well attended....At 3:00 P. M. Rev. Johnson delivered a good sermon....The 6:30 B. Y. P. U. was good and well attended....At 8:00 P. M. Rev. Hopkins delivered a wonderful sermon, after which the Clubs reported for their four weeks' work....We thank the different pastors for their help during the week....Morning Star Club, Mrs. Kimble President, reported $150.00; Willing Workers, Mrs. Scruggs, President, reported $105.00; Busy Bee, Sister Wade President, reported $89.00; Industrial Club, Sister Susie White, President, reported $30.00; Hard to Beat, Sister Price, President, reported $22.01. Total collection for Sunday $509.09. The Clubs are working hard to report the First Sunday in June. We feel proud of our great pastor. Come out and help us. God loves a cheerful giver.

THEY SAY

—That conceit is half pretension and one half—more pretension.

—That the humble potato nowadays rules as the MIGHTY SPUD.

—That great will the artist be who will paint a picture of the fellow who "could but didn't."

—That in some countries a man and his wife may travel for one fare and a half. Suppose the half fare is for the husband.

—That there is just enough difference between celebrity and notoriety to make one hesitate before aspiring to the possession of either.

—That that spring is here and the sun is shining on both sides of the street, a lot of the fellows don't want anything to eat, but plenty of gasoline to burn.

—That lynching as a sport appears to be a joke only to the fellows standing around the other fellow dangling at the end of a rope or bound to the burning stake.

—That the following poem has been dedicated to the missing dollar bird in whom all of our friends are interested:

"Here's to the missing dollar bird, Who causes grief wherever he's heard. The moment he shakes his sinister tail, Please for help congest the mail."

Bankers despair and brokers fall Light grows the working man's dinner pail. Prisoners cannot get out on bail Oh, troubles come in a regular gale When the missing dollar bird wags his tail.

—Call Fairfax 330 or Fairfax 4422.
